Career Opportunities

Secondary teaching in public and private schools.

In addition to preparation for teaching, this program can prepare students to pursue further studies in business administration, planning, law, foreign service, military science or a variety of environmental fields.

NOTE: Students selecting a subject endorsement in Geography will also need to select a second endorsement in another subject.

Scholarships and Financial Aid

Wayne State College is committed to providing a quality, affordable education for its students. There are several types of financial assistance available for Wayne State students, including grants, loans, work-study and scholarships. The aid packages are composed of money from Pell grants, SEOG grants, SSIG grants, Perkins loans, Stafford student loans, PLUS loans and a variety of scholarships. Contact the Financial Aid Office at (402) 375-7230 for further information.

Students are encouraged to apply for scholarships associated with their major/minor. The awards are based on past achievements, predicted successes, special abilities, and/or financial need.

-John David Robinson Scholarship - currently the largest scholarship available in this area. Students must possess a minimum 3.0 GPA. Preference is given to freshmen and sophomores - all majors are urged to apply.

Program Description

The subject endorsement in Geography gives students a global perspective as well as a general understanding of the field. The program is designed to acquaint the student with the natural and human systems of the earth, its physical make-up, its place in the universe, its political, economic and cultural development and the ways in which all of these interconnect.

Special Offerings

There are three Departmental Student Organizations:

- Pi Gamma Mu, Social Sciences Honorary
- Gamma Theta Upsilon, Geography
- Explorers Club
