Scholarships and Financial Aid

Wayne State College is committed to providing a quality, affordable education for its students. There are several types of financial assistance available for Wayne State students, including grants, loans, work-study and scholarships. The aid packages are composed of money from Pell grants, SEOG grants, SSIG grants, Perkins loans, Stafford student loans, PLUS loans and a variety of scholarships. Contact the Financial Aid Office at (402) 375-7230 for further information.

Special Abilities Scholarships are offered through the Communication Arts Department each semester for outstanding communication students and forensics competitors.

Program Description

The Speech Communication program offers students an opportunity to gain competence in various communicative settings by offering:

- *Courses which focus on the principles and practice of delivery and articulation, discussion, and argumentation procedures;
- *Courses which focus on interpersonal, rhetorical and communication theory and communication processes within and among individuals, groups, organizations, and societies.
- *Courses which focus on directing high school speech activities and speech teaching experiences.

Students selecting the speech subject endorsement must also select another endorsement in a second subject.
