April 9th, 10-5:00: Sr. Mary is a police chaplain and is the speaker our Catholic ministry has invited to speak on addictions. She works with adolescents at Stephen Center in Omaha. She is a police chaplain. When Sr. Cynthia visited her last fall, she had three residents tell her their story of alcohol plus meth. and other drug use. Sr. Mary will be talking to Dr. Willis's 10:00 a.m. class.

Sr. Cynthia would like to schedule her as a guest speaker in a class and/or at a time that would work for several groups to encourage attendance.

- 1) Is there someone who wants to schedule her for a class period?
- 2) Noon Speaker: Tentatively reserved 11 am through 2 PM in the Niobrara Room in the student center.
- 3) Mid-afternoon Speaker: would the 3 or 3:30 or 4 PM time work for anyone?
- 4) Info for the officers and CJ instructors/professors: Sr. Mary is also a police chaplain and has seen lots of activity over the many years. What might be helpful from their perspective?
