“Coming to Wayne State College all the way from the Italian island of Sardinia in the Mediterranean Sea was the best choice I made. So far, I like the small class sizes and direct interaction with my professors in my two majors! With many great activities to get involved in, it's easy to feel at home even though I am over 5,000 miles away. One of my favorite intramural sports is sand volleyball, which has been nothing short of a good time. I have met so many wonderful friends. Wayne State College is a place I am proud to call my home away from home. Go Wildcats!”
