

2026-27 FAFSA Verification Family Size Worksheet – Dependent Student

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been chosen for a review called "Verification." This means Wayne State College needs to check that the information you provided is correct. If we find any discrepancies, we will make the necessary changes, and you will receive an updated FAFSA Submission Summary (FSS). Please note, your financial aid awards cannot be finalized or paid to your account until this process is complete.

Warning: Providing false or misleading information can result in fines, imprisonment, or both.

Student Information

Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Instructions

List below the people in your family size. Include:

- Yourself – the student
- Your parent(s) (including a stepparent) even if the student does not currently live with the parent(s).
  - If your legal parents are divorced, separated, or were never married, list the parent who provides the greater amount of financial support.
    - If that parent is remarried, include their spouse as well.
- Your parent(s)' other children if the following are true:
  - They live with your parent(s), or live apart because of college enrollment,
  - They receive more than half of their support from your parent(s), and,
  - They will continue to receive more than half their support from your parent(s) during the award year.
- Other people if the following are true:
  - They live with your parent(s)
  - They receive more than half of their support from your parent(s), and;
  - They will continue to receive more than half their support from your parent(s) during the award year.

The provided criteria of family size align with whom the parent could claim as a dependent on a U.S. tax return if the parent were to file at the time of completing the FAFSA. As a result, the parent should not include any unborn children in the family size.
